Assessment

General Statement on Assessment:

Expectations

The work of this M/W portion of Drama 400 will constitute two-thirds of the final grade in the course.

The other one-third of the grade will be derived from work done in the Friday voice and movement labs.

NB The accomplishments of students in Drama 400 will be considered the audition for Drama 500. Advancement to Drama 500 is by advisement of the instructors and consent of Drama.

In this portion of the course, process will take precedence over immediate result. A gradual accumulation of technical practices and understandings is sought in an atmosphere that encourages both freedom and discipline. There will be no formal examinations; assignments will be shown in class at various stages of development and assessed continuously.

Students will be required to reflect critically on their own work and that of their peers and to participate in self-assessment in consultation with the instructor.

The degree to which a student commits to process, the degree to which s/he grows during the course of assignments will be given careful consideration in all assessments. Furthermore, the cooperative requirements of acting will always be considered in the evaluation of individual efforts.

Expectation for Writing: At the end of each unit, and as a component of self-assessment, students will be required to write critical reflections on the personal challenges and accomplishments experienced in the completed work.

Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Expectation for Attendance and Participation: All students are required to wear neutral and appropriate clothing that allows for free exploration of movement, and to arrive on time for class. In accordance with theatre ethics, regular attendance is considered to be of the utmost importance. Failure to attend class will only be excused if the student notifies the instructor prior to the beginning of class with a legitimate reason for absence. Use of cell phones is prohibited during class time.

Criteria that must be met to pass: All components of the course must be completed in order for students to receive a passing grade.

Grading scale

For the course as a whole, letter grades should be understood as follows, as outlined in the section F.2 Undergraduate Grading System of the Undergraduate Calendar for 2016-2017:
