Course Overview	This component of DRM 400 is designed to build on the material presented in DRM 300 in a body of work titled, “Embodying the Work – a movement approach for actors” which will provide valuable tools to strengthen, complement and enrich the students’ study of acting, text and voice. Acting is an embodied art form requiring physical confidence, expressiveness and freedom. The course material has been designed to directly address actor development, promote awareness skills both individually and in ensemble work and increase physical endurance. There will be an expectation of the student to integrate the work into all aspects of their craft. Classes will consist of segments covering: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Sensory Awareness 2) Structural/Dynamic Alignment, Anatomy 3) Syntonics, Yoga, Coordination Patterning 4) 5 Rhythms 5) Impulse work/ Physical Improvisation
Course Learning Outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Be able to readily access and activate the state of being necessary for full physical expressivity and embodied performance. 2. Be able to design and perform a detailed physical warm ups appropriate to individual needs and specific circumstances. 4. Be able to integrate a physical approach to dynamic ensemble and in solo work. 5. Be able to discern and identify personal habits and tendencies and have the tools to neutralize and overcome these liabilities working towards truthful, embodied acting.

	6. Be able to skillfully reflect and articulate experiences with language of direct experience based on experiential learning model both in verbal and written forms.

Assessment Expectations	Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Expectations for Attendance and Participation: This course is developmental, experiential and collaborative in nature and therefore attendance is mandatory. Without prior notice to the instructor, lateness or absence will negatively impact the participation grade. When the absence affects a collaborative process, the deduction will increase. Please inform the instructor of any extenuating circumstances or legitimate excuses prior to the class. If for a medical emergency, the student must be late or absent from class, they MUST ADVISE THE INSTRUCTOR BY EMAIL OR PHONE CALL well before the start of class. Acceptance of all excuses is at the discretion of the instructor. Tardiness indicates a lack of respect for all concerned and is highly unprofessional. Being on time means being ready to begin at the scheduled time. Equipment must be brought to each class to allow for full participation. Please Note 1) Proper movement dress for this class is mandatory. Clothing that allows for complete freedom of movement is required. No jeans, hats, belts or restrictive clothing allowed. Layering is advisable. 2) Water bottles are mandatory. 3) Much of the work will require bare feet. 4) No cell phone use in the studio at any time. 5) Please bring all equipment, notebook and pen to each class 6) By accepting an offered place in this class, students warrant that they are able and willing to handle the physical and emotional demands of the class. 7) Any concerns or problems should be brought to the attention of the instructor and students are encouraged to use the posted office hours whenever necessary. Guidelines for Formatting Assignments As indicated in assignment handouts Guidelines for Submitting Assignments All assignments must be delivered by the student, in hard copy form to the instructor at the beginning of the class on the due date. An electronic copy should always be saved and available for re-submission if the necessity should present itself. Late Assignments All assignments must be delivered by the student, in hard copy form to the instructor at the beginning of the class on the due date. An electronic copy should always be saved and available for re-submission if the necessity should present itself. Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass Consistent and punctual attendance, respectful and active participation in all course modules and passing grades for each assignment will ensure a passing grade. Students are encouraged to go well beyond these minimum requirements and take full advantage of all opportunities for growth and learning potential.

Grading Scale	For the course as a whole, letter grades should be understood as follows, as outlined in the section F.2 of the Undergraduate Calendar for 2015-2016:
	Grade	GPA	Description

MIDTERM AND FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULING	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (11-22 December for Fall 2015 term; 16-27 April for Winter 2016 term); students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
DEFERRALS OF EXAMS/TERM WORK	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-7.html
INTERNET AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION DEVICE	elearn.ucalgary.ca/category/d2l/ ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/emergency-instructions/uc-emergency-app The in-class use of computers may be approved by your Instructor. Cell phones and other electronic communication devices should be silenced or turned off upon entering the classroom. If you violate the Instructor’s policy regarding the use of electronic communication devices in the classroom, you may be asked to leave the classroom; repeated abuse may result in a charge of misconduct. No audio or video recording of any kind is allowed in class without explicit permission of the Instructor.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY, PLAGIARISM	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
COPYRIGHT	It is the responsibility of students and professors to ensure that materials they post or distribute to others comply with the Copyright Act and the University's Fair Dealing Guidance for Students. Further copyright information for students is available on the Copyright Office web page (library.ucalgary.ca/copyright).
ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION	Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should contact Student Accessibility Services (ucalgary.ca/access) in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities available at ucalgary.ca/policies/forms/title . Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their instructor or the appropriate Associate Dean or Division Chair.
