Course Description:

The course is devoted to the practical study of polyphony, including species (modal) counterpoint but focusing upon eighteenth century (tonal) counterpoint. Through creative exercises and analysis, students will study the technique of tonal counterpoint, with an emphasis upon the approaches found in eighteenth-century music. This will include the study of melodic line, non-imitative and imitative counterpoint including canon, and invertible counterpoint. Students will be introduced to the principles of species counterpoint and linear progressions.

Learning Outcomes:

By the completion of the course, successful students will be able to: analyze the formal and technical elements of two-part eighteenth century compositions; make creative use of the materials studied in the course (dance form movement & invention); have an introductory understanding of three-part contrapuntal technique.

Text:

Benjamin, The Craft of Tonal Counterpoint

Assessment:

Assignments (weekly)	35%
Projects (2@15%)	30%
Mid-term test	15%
Final examination	20%

All assignments will be graded under the following conditions:

Submitted early - as marked plus half a grade point

Submitted on time - as marked

Submitted late by one week or less - as marked minus a grade point

No assignments will be accepted after one week. Extensions will be granted for compellingly valid reasons (such as illness, etc. Contact the instructor in advance of the deadline.) To be considered on time, assignments must be submitted in class or by 4:00 in the SCPA office on the due date.

All assignments and test will be marked according to the following criteria: accuracy, clarity and musicality. All exercises and projects will require students to exercise musical judgment, based upon analytical evidence, and some will require students to use musical materials in a creative manner. No assignments will require students to write essays or short paragraphs.

Grading:

Demonstrate excellence (superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of the subject matter)

A+ 97-100 A 93-96 A- 90-92

Achieve a good result (clearly above average, showing generally complete knowledge of the subject matter)

B+ 85-89 B 80-84 B- 75-79

Achieve a satisfactory result (basic understanding of the subject matter)

C+ 70-74 C 65-69 C- 60-64

Demonstrate minimal understanding of the material (marginal performance, insufficient preparation for courses in the same subject)

D 50-59

Fail

F 0-49

Note: Assignments that are not submitted as above receive a zero.

Dates

Mid-term test March 3

Final examination As scheduled by the Registrar

Listening

A complete understanding music in any course can only be accomplished through careful listening. Attending concerts is the best means of acquainting oneself with music. Recordings of the pieces in the text can be found on the University of Calgary Library website (Classical Music Library), iTunes, or YouTube.

Because listening requires awareness, attention and memory, laptops or any other electronic devices are not allowed in class.

Plagiarism

Students are encouraged to discuss assignments with their colleagues with the aim of fully understanding the materials in the course. However, in the event that two or more students submit exactly the same solutions to all of the questions on an assignment (where it is obvious that one person must have copied from another), the papers will all receive the grade of F and a warning. A repeat will be considered a contravention of the University's policy regarding Academic Integrity.

Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf.
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program, funded by the Students' Union Quality Money, allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from 45 minutes prior to 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicaard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.

Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
