Fall 2016

Instructor Office Email Office Hours	Catherine Walker walkerc@ucalgary.ca by appointment
Day(s),time(s) and location of Class	Monday and Wednesday 8AM-9:50AM Aux Gym
Out of class activities	None Required
Learning resources: required readings, textbooks and materials	Ballet shoes and appropriate dance attire is required.
Prerequisites	None Required
Supplementary fees	$78.00 per student.
Course description	Introductory study of the techniques of ballet. Not included in GPA.
Course overview	Class will be comprised of a barre, centre work, pirouettes, allegro and enchainments. This will be developed over time throughout the course.
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1. Demonstrate basic ballet technique and alignment 2. Execute foundational ballet movements at the barre, in the centre, and across the floor 3. Identify basic ballet vocabulary and execute the corresponding steps or poses 4. Carry out movement combinations (enchainments) individually and in groups
Course schedule	Full participation is necessary as classes build on previously learned material. This course will focus on experiential learning through active physical participation. Each class will incorporate observation, direction and physical practice. Focus will be on establishing a solid technical foundation in ballet. Throughout the course an increased awareness and knowledge of the dancer's own body, postural alignment, flexibility and strength will be developed. For some this might mean reevaluating the dancer understanding of previous training and becoming more knowledgeable of the potential of their own body. Increased focus in class, attention to detail and ability to assimilate corrections will be established. Artistic expression will be developed along with physical execution.
Assessment components	This is a pass/fail course. Additional details for assessment will be given in-class. It is recommended that students bring a dance journal to class each day to track progress and write down any class notes. Assignment 1: Goals Value: Completion - this assignment will not be graded but must be completed in order to pass the course. Due Date: Sept 19, 2016 Type: Typed

	Description: One page detailing your personal goals for this course, previous dance training if any and any injuries the instructor should be aware of and that might affect your ability to be successful in this course.
Assessment expectations	Guidelines for Submitting Assignments Please submit to the instructor at the beginning of the class on or before the due date. Email submissions will not be accepted Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass This is a pass/fail course. Please see the criteria below One written assignment to be submitted. Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Expectations for Attendance and Participation: Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details. FOR PASS/FAIL DANCE COURSES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Due to the experiential nature of this course, classes are equivalent to assignment. Therefore, classes missed will be detrimental to the final grade. More than four (4) missed classes will result in a fail for the course. • If you show up late for or leave early from class two (2) times, this will be counted as a full class absence. • If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence. • For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence. • Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence.
Grading scale	This course is a pass (CR) or fail (F) course. The grades in this course will not be included in the calculation of student's grade point average, as outlined in the section F.2 Undergraduate Grading System of the Undergraduate Calendar for 2016-2017:
Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf.
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program, funded by the Students' Union Quality Money, allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from 45 minutes prior to 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time.

	6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CVS privileges.
