Course description	Elementary/Intermediate study of classical ballet technique. In this course students will learn about the global history and current relevance of classical ballet through research and study of the works of companies, choreographers and dancers from all regions of the world. Constant practice of classical ballet technique, improvisation and creation will continue to improve students' technical abilities and further develop their artistry and performance skills, while cultivating a personal style within the classical ballet aesthetic.
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1-Demonstrate an understanding of the history, impact and relevance of classical ballet worldwide, appreciating the legacy of iconic international dance companies, choreographers and dancers. 2-Improve posture, coordination, awareness and control of the body. 3-Demonstrate an Elementary/Intermediate level of understanding of classical ballet technique. 4-Exhibit an Elementary/Intermediate level of comprehension of ballet terminology both in written and verbal forms. 5-Understand and exhibit musicality in the use of timing and musical responsiveness. 6-Demonstrate growth and development of performance skills through the expressive interpretation of set movement vocabulary. 7-Improve artistry applying newly acquired knowledge of classical ballet technique in the creation and performance of their own choreographic works. 8-Participate in collaborative and interactive learning experiences.
Course schedule	No classes: February 19 - 25, 2023 (Term break) April 7, 2023 Good Friday April 10, 2023 Easter Monday

Assessment components	Assignment 1: Attendance and Participation Description: Students will be assessed on an ongoing basis in each class. Attendance, commitment and participation in all aspects of the course are fundamental to your progress and artistic growth. Keeping a class journal is recommended to record your observations, document exercises and music selections, and continuously monitor your progress, development, and embodiment of the class material. Absences and chronic lateness are unacceptable. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details. Weight: 40% Due Date: Ongoing January 9 – April 12, 2023 Assignment 2: Proficiency and Development Description: Students will be evaluated on their Elementary/Intermediate technical development throughout the term. Embodiment of the classical ballet aesthetic at the Elementary/Intermediate level will be assessed considering the student’s demonstration of secure posture and alignment, coordination, body awareness, musicality, ability to memorize, projection and performance skill. Weight: 40% Due Date: Ongoing January 9 – April 12, 2022 Assignment 3: Group Research and Reflection PowerPoint Presentation Description: Choose an iconic international ballet choreographer or dancer; research and provide career, choreographic and/or performative style details. Reflect and share your thoughts about the relevance and permanence of the works created and/or performed by the artist. Presentations should include images, videos and/or testimonials and must be uploaded to the Research and PowerPoint Presentation Dropbox Folder on D2L. Workload and responsibilities are to be shared among all the group participants during the research, preparation and presentation of the project. Maximum 4 participants per group. Duration: 15 - 20 minutes per group. Weight: 5% Due Date: February 15, 2023 Assignment 4: Choreography and Performance (Final Project) Assessment Method: In-class presentation Description: Create a solo or group choreography (1-3 minutes) reflecting your newly acquired musical and rhythmic sensitivity as well as movement versatility and creativity within the ballet dance aesthetic. Each student is required to perform and individually create a choreography; however, performing in your own choreographic work is not mandatory. Weight: 15% Due Date: April 3, 2023

Assessment expectations	Guidelines for Submitting Assignments: See above Missed or Late Assignments: Missed or late assignments are unacceptable; in case of extenuating circumstances, please contact me. Attendance and Participation Expectations: FOR GRADED DANCE STUDIO COURSES A significant part of your grade is based on participation. Participation means not only showing up for class, but also attending to the material at hand with effort and engagement. With regard to participation, classes are considered equivalent to assignments. Thus, more than 3 absences per term will have an adverse effect on your final grade. If you miss more than one week of classes, your final grade will begin to drop by as much as 10% per missed class. If you miss more than two weeks of classes, you have the potential to fail the course. If you show up late for or leave early from class, this will be counted as half an absence. If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence. For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence. Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence. If you sustain a significant injury during the term that will impact your participation for longer than a week's worth of classes, your case will be submitted to the Dance Division Committee to address your situation. Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Guidelines for Zoom Sessions	Zoom is a video conferencing program that will allow us to meet at specific times for a “live” video conference, so that we can have the opportunity to meet each other virtually and discuss relevant course topics as a learning community. To help ensure Zoom sessions are private, do not share the Zoom link or password with others, or on any social media platforms. Zoom links and passwords are only intended for students registered in the course. Zoom recordings and materials presented in Zoom, including any teaching materials, must not be shared, distributed or published without the instructor’s permission. The use of video conferencing programs relies on participants to act ethically, honestly and with integrity; and in accordance with the principles of fairness, good faith, and respect (as per the Code of Conduct). When entering Zoom or other video conferencing sessions (such as MS Teams), you play a role in helping create an effective, safe and respectful learning environment. Please be mindful of how your behaviour in these sessions may affect others. Participants are required to use names officially associated with their UCID (legal or preferred names listed in the Student Centre) when engaging in these activities. Instructors/moderators can remove those whose names do not appear on class rosters. Non-compliance may be investigated under relevant University of Calgary conduct policies (e.g Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy). If participants have difficulties complying with this requirement, they should email the instructor of the class explaining why, so the instructor may consider whether to grant an exception, and on what terms. For more information on how to get the most out of your zoom sessions visit: https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/guidelines-for-zoom/. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session). Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.). The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.
Academic Accommodation	It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The Student Accommodations policy is available at https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/access/prospective-students/academic-accommodations. Students needing an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS) in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Accommodation-for-Students-with-Disabilities-Procedure.pdf). Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfill requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Academic integrity, plagiarism	Academic Misconduct refers to student behavior which compromises proper assessment of a student's academic activities and includes: cheating; fabrication; falsification; plagiarism; unauthorized assistance; failure to comply with an instructor's expectations regarding conduct required of students completing academic assessments in their courses; and failure to comply with exam regulations applied by the Registrar. For information on the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedure please visit: https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Academic-Misconduct-Policy.pdf and https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Academic-Misconduct-Procedure.pdf. Additional information is available on the Academic Integrity Website at https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/learning/academic-integrity.
Internet and electronic communication device	The use of laptop and mobile devices is acceptable when used in a manner appropriate to the course and classroom activities. Please refrain from accessing websites and resources that may be distracting to you or for other learners during class time. Students are responsible for being aware of the University's Internet and email use policy, which can be found at https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Acceptable-Use-of-Electronic-Resources-and-Information-Policy.pdf.
Intellectual Property	Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.
Copyright	All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Acceptable-Use-of-Material-Protected-by-Copyright-Policy.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html.
Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy	Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students' assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.
