April 11  Type: Written Reflection  Description: The journal assignment has two components.  Students will be expected to record daily class activities as well as their reflections on the work as the ongoing preparation for the final paper.  At the end of term, the student will write a compilation paper based on important discoveries, reflections and development throughout the term.  Although this assignment is worth only 10% of the term, the paper will have significant bearing on both the Participation and Growth and Development grades. Growth and Development and Participation Assessment  The instructor will be observing and assessing the following:  1) Willingness and commitment to move forward in the work  2) Discipline, focus, risk taking, working from a growing sense of truth for the actor  3) Openness, consistency, preparation, diligence  4) Successful integration and application of learned skills  5) Generosity, respect for, and ability to work well with others and overall positive contribution to class discussions, activities and a safe and inclusive environment.
Assessment Expectations	Expectations for Writing:  Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Expectations for Attendance and Participation:  This course is developmental, experiential and often collaborative in nature and therefore attendance is mandatory. Please inform the instructor prior to the class in the event of extenuating circumstances or legitimate absence. Failure to attend class and/or tardiness will impact the participation standing. If for a medical emergency, the student must be late or absent from class, they MUST ADVISE THE INSTRUCTOR BY EMAIL OR PHONE CALL well before the start of class.  When absence affects a collaborative process, a more severe deduction will be made.  Throughout the year, students will be required to rehearse outside of class time and

attend theatre productions. Please be on time and ready to begin at the scheduled time.

Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details.

Please Note:

- 1) Proper dress is mandatory. Please wear clothing that allows for complete freedom of movement. (No jeans, hats, or restrictive clothing)
- 2) Please bring writing materials- notebook and pen to each class.
- 3) No cell phone use in the classroom at any time.
- 4) Please bring a water bottle to class.
- 5) Much of the work will require bare feet.
- 6) Any problems or concerns should immediately be brought to the attention of the instructor. Students are encouraged to use the posted office hours whenever necessary.

Guidelines for Formatting Assignments

As noted in assignment handouts

Guidelines for Submitting Assignments

All assignments must be delivered by the student, in hard copy form to the instructor at the beginning of the class on the due date. An electronic copy should always be saved and available for re-submission if the necessity should present itself.

Late Assignments

No late work will be accepted except in the case of extenuating circumstances that have been brought to the attention of and agreed upon by the instructor well in advance of the due date. Grade deduction will be at the discretion of the instructor base on the circumstances.

Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass

Consistent and punctual attendance, respectful and active participation in all course components and passing grades in each assignment will ensure a passing grade. Students are encouraged to go well beyond these minimum requirements and take full advantage of all opportunities for growth and learning potential.

Grading Scale

For the course as a whole, letter grades should be understood as follows, as outlined in the section F.2 of the Undergraduate Calendar for 2015-2016:

MIDTERM AND FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULING	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (11-22 December for Fall 2015 term; 16-27 April for Winter 2016 term); students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
DEFERRALS OF EXAMS/TERM WORK	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final  ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html  ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-7.html

Cell phones and other electronic communication devices should be silenced or turned off upon entering the classroom. If you violate the Instructor's policy regarding the use of electronic communication devices in the classroom, you may be asked to leave the classroom; repeated abuse may result in a charge of misconduct. No audio or video recording of any kind is allowed in class without explicit permission of the Instructor.
ACADEMIC INTEGRITY, PLAGIARISM	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
COPYRIGHT	It is the responsibility of students and professors to ensure that materials they post or distribute to others comply with the Copyright Act and the University's Fair Dealing Guidance for Students. Further copyright information for students is available on the Copyright Office web page (library.ucalgary.ca/copyright).
ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION	Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should contact Student Accessibility Services (ucalgary.ca/access) in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities available at ucalgary.ca/policies/forms/title. Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate

	this need, preferably in writing, to their instructor or the appropriate Associate Dean or Division Chair.
