Course description	An introduction to graphic and model building techniques for the theatre designer.
Course overview	Drama 319 is an introduction to graphic and model building techniques demonstrating how theatre designers use the skills of drawing, painting, drafting and modeling as tools for thinking, experimentation, and communication. We will also look at CAD drafting for the Theatre in VectorWorks, as well as graphic design techniques in Photoshop. Students will complete a series of projects that demonstrate the designer's use of drawing, painting and model building to communicate their ideas. This is a skill-building class; the emphasis will be on technique and visual communication of an idea with the grading focused on accuracy, technique and inventiveness.
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1. Draft in 2D and 3D using VectorWorks CAD software 2. Develop an understanding of graphic techniques and how they apply to the artistic practice of theatre designers. 3. Develop a strong practice in scale model building and understand the importance of scale in the artistic practice of theatre designers. 4. Develop research techniques for period architectural detail as well as period costume detail.
Course schedule	Please see attached schedule.

Assessment components	(Instructors should list the different types of assignments that will be used in the class, indicating the percentage value of each type. Assessment expectations	Expectations for Attendance and Participation: Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details. Please Note: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the fine arts, skills are cumulative. Each project adds to the understanding of the organizational processes and skills needed to complete subsequent projects. It is necessary that you participate in, and finish all the projects to be successful in this course. • Course Critiques and Grades: This course includes in-class critiques in which student works and performance are discussed and critical analysis offered by the instructor and student peers. Formal grades for student work will be conveyed privately and not in class discussion. • Since class participation is an important component of the course, grading is based on full attendance. Sketchbook assignments will often be started in class; missing a class will mean missing an assignment. • Similarly, all the parts of a project, exercise or sketchbook assignment contribute to the evolution and final realization of the work. Therefore, the Instructor(s) may decide not to accept or grade incomplete projects; all parts of each project must be included in the final submission by the given deadline. • Class exercises, sketchbooks, and projects will be given a letter grade and will be due as noted in the schedule or as specified by the instructor. Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Guidelines for Formatting Assignments: to be provided on individual assignment sheets. Guidelines for Submitting Assignments: to be provided on individual assignment sheets. Late Assignments: Completed projects, exercises, and/or sketchbooks will be accepted after those due dates, but the grade will be reduced by 10% per day late. In other words, work that is graded as A will receive an F after 6 days late.

	Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass: All assignments must be handed in in order to pass. Class time must be used effectively in order to received feedback from the instructor and therefore it is critical that students bring all of their materials and works-in-progress to class.

Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program, funded by the Students' Union Quality Money, allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from 45 minutes prior to 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.
