Text and recordings	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Readings available via D2L under External Links</li> <li>• It is the responsibility of the student to procure all required listening materials for this course.</li> </ul>
Course Description	MUSI 301 01 is a multimedia survey course exploring the genre of popular music known as Progressive Rock. The course will include an examination of Progressive Rock's early history from its psychedelic beginnings, through its heyday in the 1970s, and its legacy in the 1980s and beyond. Discussions will center on a survey of some of Progressive Rock's most well known icons and will include detailed analyses and in-depth discussions of their works.
Course Objectives	In addition to providing students with an in-depth look at one of rock's most fascinating genres, this course will assist students in developing a greater appreciation and understanding of progressive rock and popular music in general. Structural analyses of major works will offer students a clear means of tracing and evaluating the development of the genre. Lectures, class discussions, readings, and assignments will encourage the development of an appropriate musical vocabulary and provide a forum for intelligent discussion. By focusing on key issues surrounding the music – the importance of musical eclecticism, the appropriation of western classical music, the foregrounding of virtuosity, and the use of fantasy in lyrical content and album artwork - students will be encouraged to approach popular music from a critical perspective.
Assignments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Three listening exams (May 28, June 11, and June 23: 15% each)</li> <li>• Midterm exam (June 4: 20%)</li> <li>• Final take-home exam (due June 25: 25%)</li> <li>• Group presentation (June 25: 10%)</li> <li>• Please note: students are required to complete all components of this course. Make-up exams will not be scheduled without a valid medical excuse and documentation. Late work will be penalized by one grade increment per day (A becomes A-, A- becomes B+, etc.)</li> </ul> The grading scheme for all course assignments and exams is as follows: 96% and over = A+; 91-95% = A; 86-90% = A-; 81-85% = B+; 76-80% = B; 71-75% = B-; 66-70% = C+; 61-65% = C; 56-60% = C-; 50-55% = D; Below 50%: F. All written work will be evaluated in terms of content, form and language competency.

Plagiarism	Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. For details see the University of Calgary Calendar. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Writing Centre (SS110) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
Academic Accommodation Awareness Information	It is a student's responsibility to request academic accommodation. If you are a student with a disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre , please contact the office at 200-8237 or drop in at MacEwan Student Centre 293 (across from The Stor). Your academic accommodation letters should be provided to your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the commencement of this course. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation.
