Course Description	MUSI 301.01 is a multimedia survey course exploring the genre of popular music known as Progressive Rock. The course will include an examination of Progressive Rock's early history from its psychedelic beginnings, through its heyday in the 1970s, and its legacy in the 1980s and beyond. Discussions will center on a survey of some of Progressive Rock's most well-known icons and will include detailed analyses and in-depth discussions of their works.
Course Objectives	In addition to providing students with an in-depth look at one of rock's most fascinating genres, this course will assist students in developing a greater appreciation and understanding of progressive rock and popular music in general. Structural analyses of major works will offer students a clear means of tracing and evaluating the development of the genre. Lectures, class discussions, readings, and assignments will encourage the development of an appropriate musical vocabulary and provide a forum for intelligent discussion. By focusing on key issues surrounding the music – the importance of musical eclecticism, the appropriation of western classical music, the foregrounding of virtuosity, and the use of fantasy in lyrical content and album artwork – students will be encouraged to approach popular music from a critical perspective.
Assessment Expectations	Expectations for Writing: All written work will be evaluated in terms of content, form and language competency. Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Expectations for Attendance and Participation: Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details. Guidelines for Formatting Assignments: Please consult the Chicago Manual of Style Late Assignments: Make-up exams will not be scheduled without the most compelling reasons and must be accompanied by appropriate documentation. Late work will be penalized by one grade increment per day (A becomes A-, A- becomes B+, etc.).

	Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass: A passing grade will only be awarded where students convincingly demonstrate a working familiarity of the music, artists, genres, styles and cultures represented in class lectures, course readings and required listening.

Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar ( ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html ) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge.</li> <li>2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc.</li> <li>3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance.</li> <li>4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicaard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket.</li> <li>5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time.</li> <li>6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.</li> </ol>
