Course Description	MUSI 302.01 is a multimedia survey course exploring the music of Led Zeppelin, including an examination of the band's history from their pre-Zeppelin beginnings through their rise to superstardom. Discussions will center on an album-by-album survey of the band's music and will include detailed analyses of significant works.
Course Objectives	In addition to providing students with an in-depth look at one of rock's most well known musical icons, this course will assist students in developing a greater appreciation and understanding of the band's music and popular music in general. Structural analyses of major works will offer students a clear means of tracing and evaluating the development of the group's style. Lectures, class discussions, readings, and assignments will encourage the development of an appropriate musical vocabulary and provide a forum for intelligent discussion. By focusing on key issues surrounding the music of Led Zeppelin – the importance of the blues, the function of the acoustic set, the significance of non-western music, and the role of gender - students will be encouraged to approach popular music from a critical perspective.
Assessments and Grading	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three listening exams (February 3, March 10, April 2: 15% each) • Midterm exam (February 26: 20%) • Final take-home exam (due April 14: 25%) • Group presentation (April 9 & 14: 10%) • Please note: students are required to complete all components of this course. LETTER OF PERMISSION	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the UofC, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Writing Centre (SS110) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
