Graduate Assistant:

Jason Young
jason.young1@ucalgary.ca

Office Hours:

MWF 15:30-14:30 or by appointment

Course Description:

Through creative exercises and analysis, students will study the materials of post-tonal music including: the melodic and harmonic resources derived from modality, atonality, twelve-tone techniques and serialism; pitch centricity and symmetry; polyrhythm, multimetre and controlled aleatory; extended instrumental techniques; and both open and closed forms. Students will use new approaches to the analysis of music, including pitch-class set theory. Students will also listen carefully to selected repertoire.

Learning Outcomes:

By the completion of the course, successful students will be able to: analyze the pitch, rhythmic, formal, and timbric elements of post-tonal compositions from 1900 to the present; make creative use of the materials studied in the course; develop and defend a perspective, based on analytic evidence, on compositions using post-tonal materials.

Text:

Straus, Joseph N., Introduction to Post Tonal Theory

Assessment:

Assignments (weekly)	40%
Composition project	10%
Mid-term test	25%
Final examination	25%

The composition project will be a two-minute (maximum) composition for a minimum of two performers (student's choice) making use of a post-tonal vocabulary (pentatonic, modal and minimalist materials or procedures are excluded). The use of text is also excluded for any piece using voice.

All assignments will be graded under the following conditions:

Submitted early - as marked plus half a grade point

Submitted on time - as marked

Submitted late by one week or less - as marked minus a grade point

No assignments will be accepted after one week. Extensions will be granted for compellingly valid reasons (such as illness, etc. Contact the instructor in advance of the deadline.) To be considered on time, assignments must be submitted in class or by 16:00 in the SCPA office on the due date, and to be considered early, submitted on or before 16:00 in the SCPA office on the working day before the due date (if the assignment is due on a Friday, then early is Thursday; if the assignment is due on a Monday, then early is on the Friday before)

All assignments and test will be marked according to the following criteria: accuracy, clarity and musicality. Certain exercises will have correct answers, others will require students to exercise musical judgment, based upon analytical evidence, and others will require students to use musical materials in a creative manner.

Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Dates

Mid-term test	March 1

Listening

A complete understanding music in any course can only be accomplished through careful listening. Attending concerts is the best means of acquainting oneself with music. Recordings of the pieces in the text can be found on the University of Calgary Library website (Classical Music Library), iTunes, or Spotify.

Because listening requires awareness, attention and memory, laptops or any other electronic devices are not allowed in class.

Plagiarism

Students are encouraged to discuss assignments with their colleagues with the aim of fully understanding the materials in the course. However, in the event that two or more students submit exactly the same solutions to all of the questions on an assignment (where it is obvious that one person must have copied from another), both papers will receive the grade of F and a warning. A repeat will be considered a contravention of the University's policy regarding Academic Integrity and will be reported to the Associate Dean of the Faculty of Arts for disciplinary action.

In the case of the use of a musical quotation in a composition, an acknowledgement must appear in the title of the piece.

Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
Deferrals of exams/term work	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final  ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html  ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-7.html
Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy. Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html; ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

If you violate the Instructor’s policy regarding the use of electronic communication devices in the classroom, you may be asked to leave the classroom; repeated abuse may result in a charge of misconduct. No audio or video recording of any kind is allowed in class without explicit permission of the Instructor. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket.</li> <li>5. they can find a UTS staff member with an iPad and get their CYS ticket from them.</li> <li>6. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event.
